The American schooner Linah C. Saminski, hailing from Georgetown and bound from Georgetown for New York, cargo of naval stores. Schooner had been in collision with an unknown three masted schooner the night previous <sup>March 2nd</sup> which cut her port side down to the water edge, and carried away main and mizzenmast. Send boat out, to rescue captain and his wife, which were all alone on board as the crew had jumped on board the unknown schooner, and the Saminski's boats were stove in, and the captain quite exhausted. Nothing was saved, except the clothes they had on. Sea being too high to save anything.
